Coll Hours Grade

Students who wish to pursue an 18-hour specialization in English

must complete the following graduate courses:

ENGL 5307-Literary Theory

ENGL 5308-Advanced Literary Research

Students who wish to pursue an 18-hour specialization in History

must complete the following graduate courses:

HIST 5301-Historical Methods

Students who wish to pursue an 18-hour specialization in Religion are not required to complete any specific graduate courses.

For the last or 37th credit hour, the student must successfully complete the comprehensive exam in one of the areas of specialization.

ENGL 5102-Comprehensive Exam

HIST 5100-Comprehensive Exam

RLGN 5102-Comprehensive Written Exam

The degree requires 37 hours, with a minimum of 18 hours in one of three disciplines--English, History, or Religion. An additional 18 hours can be completed in a second discipline or the student may choose to split the remaining 18 hours between the other two disciplines.

Students may not complete more than 24 hours in one of the three areas; those who wish to do so should pursue the Master of Arts in the specific area.

Any course taken for credit toward the degree must be approved by the dean of the school that delivers that particular course.
